Transition Newsletter
Issue 3

WELCOME

Welcome to issue 3 of our transition newsletter! We hope you are enjoying getting to know a little bit more about St Bede's. Remember to keep checking our website here for resources and information to support your transition from primary to secondary school, and to give you a flavour of life as a Year 7 student at St Bede's.

Did you crack the Maths coded columns last week and work out why the monster stood on his head? Find the answers on page 2!

MEET THE STAFF

Mrs Noon, our SENDCO, welcomes you to St Bede's and assures you that if you need any additional support, she will be there to help.

MEET A MEMBER OF STAFF

I am so pleased to be able to say a big 'Hello' to all of our soon-to-be new Year 7 pupils! My name is Mrs Noon and I am the SENDCo (Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Co-ordinator). I am here to help support everyone at school, especially pupils who may find learning a little more challenging, at times.

Our teachers are fantastic and are ready to support you in your learning in any way they can. We are all here to help you get settled in and begin enjoying your learning journey at St. Bede's.

We are all really looking forward to meeting you here at school when you come for your transition visit days. You will find that St. Bede's is a kind, caring and welcoming community and you will soon feel part of our family.

See you all very soon!
Mrs Noon

QUESTION TIME

What clubs and activities can I take part in?

Here at St Bede's, we offer lots of clubs and activities to take part in during lunch time and after school. Joining a club is a great way to make new friends – it's much easier to talk to someone new, while you're doing an activity. It's good to try new things and step outside your comfort zone. Here is a selection of some of the extra-curricular activities on offer:

- ✓ Sport clubs: cricket, football, rugby, netball, trampolining, athletics, dance, tennis
- ✓ Drama – this year, our school production is School of Rock
- ✓ Music groups: orchestra / choir / band
- ✓ Games clubs
- ✓ Youth SVP and Happy Chappies Chaplaincy
- ✓ Knit and natter
- ✓ Card-making
- ✓ Arts & crafts
- ✓ Book club

READ & WRITE CHALLENGE

Use the chart below to help you practise your reading and writing skills. There are enough tasks here to do a different one each day of the holidays or you can save them up for a rainy day and do a few at a time! Get started this week by reading outside on a sunny day.

READ outside on a sunny day	WRITE a postcard to yourself and send it	READ to someone older than you	WRITE a haiku diary entry	READ something non-fiction	WRITE a letter to someone you don't see often	READ something a friend has already read
WRITE a story with yourself as the main character	READ somewhere unusual of your own choice	WRITE about your best summer memories	READ something you've borrowed from a friend or the library	WRITE about the way today's weather makes you feel	READ a magazine or newspaper	WRITE a list of songs for the soundtrack of the movie of your life
READ under the covers or under a tree	WRITE as if you were someone totally different	READ aloud and 'do the voices'!	WRITE a description of a made up place	READ something someone recommends to you	WRITE a note to someone in your family	READ an old favourite
WRITE about a dream you remember	READ about somewhere you've never been	WRITE about somewhere you've visited	READ something you choose for yourself	WRITE a top ten list of food, songs, places, people	READ something set in the future	WRITE For ten minutes without stopping to think
READ when travelling somewhere	WRITE about where you would most like to live	READ to someone younger than you	WRITE about the view from your window	READ something that rhymes	WRITE a description of an imaginary person	READ about somewhere you've been
WRITE three wishes (choose wisely!)	READ something twice as long as you'd usually read	WRITE a set of instructions for a game you've invented	READ something a family member liked when they were your age	WRITE a thank you note to someone who has inspired you	READ instead of watching TV	WRITE about how you'd spend the day if you were someone else
READ before you get out of bed	WRITE a list of things you can see, hear and smell	READ instead of going online	WRITE about the things you want to remember about this year at school	READ something written a long time ago	WRITE some new term promises for yourself	READ something you've read before
